

North East Trailer Sailors Come Sail With Us!

Buzzard's Bay Rendezvous

<http://www.ne-ts.com/>

Friday September 7, 2007

The plan was to launch and sail from Wareham, Ma. to Red Brook Harbor, anchor there for the night and sail on to Martha's Vineyard the next day. Some members would then sail on to Nantucket and some would return to Wareham.

But the wind gods were against us. We encountered strong winds and heavy seas, typical weather for Buzzard's Bay, and so had to spend the whole weekend at Red Brook Harbor. (Winds were reported to be 28kts. and seas at 4.5 to 5.5 ft.) Luckily, everyone made it to Red Brook Harbor without incident.

In true NE-TS fashion, we made the most of it with a 'Jimmy Buffet beach party on Bassett's Island on Saturday and lots of "raft hopping". The return trip to Wareham on Sunday was uneventful, with low wind and calm seas.
